WEEK 4 RECAPS

ALL FINAL

urple goblin 176.86 Matt likes slug stuff 113.32

Lucas set a perfect lineup and dropped the season high by 22.8: Javonte Williams 31.3, Kyle Monangai 28.0 (from the flex!), Tee Higgins 26.7, Maye 26.2. Justin finally started the right QB (Purdy 19.6 over Hurts 13.5) and lost by 63.5. His best possible lineup (117.02) loses by 60. Some weeks it's just not your week.

deonewalker 158.12 ICBM 96.28

A statement game from the Commish: Nico Collins 30.8, Bijan 27.7, Burrow 23.7, Nabers 23.2, and waiver kicker Will Reichard 19 (Butker dropped, genius confirmed). Yes, Doubts (23.8) and Vele (17.4) sat behind Egbuka's 3.3. The margin was 61.84. Julian left Emanuel Wilson's 27.0 on his bench a day after picking him up.

pfp 137.86 Gavmoney 128.78

Tetairoa McMillan went for 45.2 and Vincent got back to .500, with Barkley (2.0) barely showing up. CeeDee's 41.3 wasn't enough for Gavin because Kyren Williams scored 36.7 on his bench while Henry (15.9) and Jones (16.8) started. Best lineup: 172.18. First loss for Gavmoney, and a self-inflicted one.

Rashee Rice's Felons 132.64 Dart Vader 113.40

Chuba Hubbard, the Commish's old RB, went for 25.9, and Dennis won with Tate 21.5, Metcalf 16.5 and Mahomes 17.0 on his bench. Logan benched Brian Robinson Jr. (25.7) and Kirk Cousins (22.6, added this week), started Kincaid (1.7) again, and had a 138.2 lineup available. Self-inflicted loss #3.

Dream Two Man 104.72 Nolan's Nifty Team 100.38

Theo benched Pittman (3.5) and won. Funny how that works. Allen "only" 18.5, which we're blaming on the wind, the refs and the play-caller. Nolan started the right kicker for the first time ever (Bates 18), then got 0.0 from Rashee Rice and left Omarion Hampton (13.3) behind Bucky Irving (6.1). That swap wins it.

Yellow Fever 104.68 Ceedeeznuts 95.36

Jerry's first win, and he did it while starting Keenan Allen (0.0, OUT), who he claimed off waivers this week. Deebo 18.0, Puka 27.7. Sam (busy, presumably) had Hockenson's 24.9 and RJ Harvey's 19.3 on the bench and lost by 9.32. Best lineup: 124.26. The Commish's second team will bounce back.

WEEK 4 BY THE NUMBERS

43.4 pts on Gavin's bench, the most this week. Lucas: 0.0.

4-0. Nolan, Logan and Theo's records with their best lineups. Real combined record: 3-9.

560.7 points against Julian, most in the league by 60.

4 teams lost games their bench would have won: Gavin, Logan, Sam and (again) Nolan.

6 notable Week 5 byes (KC, CAR): Rice, Kelce, Walker, McMillan, Bryce Young, Hubbard.

AWARDS

WEEK 4

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Tetairoa McMillan, 45.2 (pfp). Runner-up CeeDee Lamb, 41.3 in a loss. Vincent's QB Bryce Young chipped in 21.5.

BENCH BLUNDER

Gavin. Kyren Williams 36.7 and Jameson Williams 16.2 on the bench, Henry 15.9 and Watson 7.7 starting. Best lineup 172.18 beats Vincent by 34. Lost by 9.08.

HEART-BREAKER

Nolan, by 4.34. Rice 0.0 in the lineup, Hampton 13.3 on the bench. Now 0-4 with losses by 13, 55, 0.92 and 4.34.

GALAXY BRAIN

Lucas. Perfect lineup, 176.86, season high. He sat Aaron Rodgers' 22.0 for Maye's 26.2 and was right.

KICKER ROULETTE

Nolan is 1-for-4! Bates 18, Mevis 6 on the bench. The streak is over. So is any chance of a 4-0 start.

WAIVER GHOST

Jerry claimed Keenan Allen and started him. Allen was OUT. 0.0. Jerry won anyway, which is the most Jerry thing possible.

EX-PITTMAN BUMP

Theo benched Pittman for the first time. Pittman: 3.5. Theo: W. Correlation is causation.

NAME FRAUD

Still no CeeDee at Ceedeeznuts, no Dart at Dart Vader, no Rice at the Felons. Rice is Nolan's, and gave him 0.0. Maybe the Felons dodged one.

VISIONARY EXEC

The Commish picked up Joe Mixon, who currently has no NFL team. Stash szn. He also offered Vincent Philip Rivers for Achane, then pulled it. Vincent later cut Achane for Emanuel Wilson.

TRADE REPORT

NO NEW DEALS

London → pfp • Deebo + Shakir → Yellow Fever
Week 4: London 14.6. Deebo 18.0 + Shakir 13.2 (bench) = 31.2. Jerry's side is now +5.2 on the deal.

STILL: VINCENT One good Deebo week doesn't make London a bad WR1.

Metcalf + Hubbard → Felons • Egbuka + Price → Commish

Week 4: Hubbard 25.9 + Metcalf 16.5 (bench) vs. Egbuka 3.3 + Price (IR). Two-week total: Dennis 69.5, Commish 15.7. The Commish scored 158 this week, so who's really winning.

VERDICT: COMMISH (LONG-TERM) Unchanged. It's been two weeks.

Henderson → ICBM • Wicks → urple goblin
Henderson 4.2, Wicks 4.8, both on benches. Nobody has noticed this trade happened.

LEAN: JULIAN

WAIVER WIRE

Emanuel Wilson saga. Vincent dropped De'Von Achane for him Saturday. Wilson was on Julian's bench by Saturday night and scored 27.0 there.

Bo Nix to Sam on waivers. Started over Herbert, 13.6 to 9.6. The Commish's influence shows.

Schedule: actual wins minus expected wins vs. all 11 teams each week. Performance: starters' points vs. ESPN projections. Injuries: est. pts/wk lost to sidelined regulars at ESPN projected per-game value (backup QBs and guys drafted or claimed hurt don't count). Verdict: Lucas isn't lucky, he's good. Nolan is unlucky and bad. *Not really. The Commish owns this paper.
